

	<table> <tr> <td>CONNECTION</td><td>BEWARE!</td></tr> <tr> <td>GROUPS</td><td>Matthew 6:1</td></tr> <tr> <td>NOTES</td><td>April 3, 2022</td></tr> </table>	CONNECTION	BEWARE!	GROUPS	Matthew 6:1	NOTES	April 3, 2022
CONNECTION	BEWARE!
GROUPS	Matthew 6:1
NOTES	April 3, 2022

---

Pray:

---

Praise

- How have you been encouraged and challenged during the Mission Emphasis Month?

Review (discussion points from Scripture & sermon )

- What is the warning in Matthew 6:1?
- Read Matthew 5:16 and 6:1. What does each verse say in its context? What is the Author's intent?
- What is Jesus' primary concern for us not to practice righteousness in order to be seen by others?
- What kinds of rewards does the Lord say He will give to His faithful servants?

Reflect

- What might be the dangers to our souls?
- Why is it more satisfying to be seen and rewarded by our Father in heaven?
- Be Thou My Vision - "Riches I heed not, nor vain, empty praise; Thou mine inheritance, now and always; Thou and Thou only first in my heart; High King of heaven, my treasure Thou art."

Respond

- When we are amazed by someone's service to the Lord, how shall we speak words of encouragement in a God-honoring way?
  - Would Jesus' words in Matthew 6:1 bring any changes in your personal life and ministry?
-