

PRAYER & FASTING

1 John 5:14-15

This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us. And if we know that he hears us—whatever we ask—we know that we have what we asked of him.

For our church, pray:

- That we will seize every God-given opportunity to fulfill the Great Commission.
- That our pastor will faithfully preach God's Word, sharing truth without compromise or fear.
- That our pastors and their wives will be refreshed in mind, body, and spirit, protected from the enemy, and led by the Holy Spirit according to God's perfect will.
- That we will be burdened for those without Christ and faithful to share the gospel with them.
- That our church family will remain unified around our Savior and His purposes for His church.
- That every church member will become a fully engaged and involved participant in the church's mission.
- That every guest experiences the love of Christ and receives a warm welcome.
- That Jesus and His gospel remain at the center of all we do.
- That God will bless our church's financial resources, calling believers to give generously through tithes and offerings.
- That we would prepare our next generations to be godly ambassadors in our world.

For our community, pray:

- That our local leaders would have godly wisdom to lead in a way that honors God.
- That our educators would teach with truth and wisdom.
- That our first responders would be kept safe from harm.
- That our business leaders would have a vision for advancing kingdom purposes in their spheres of influence.

For our country, pray:

- That God's people will humble themselves, seek God, and turn from their sin so that our nation can experience spiritual healing.
- That evil influences be thwarted.
- That spiritual revival would spread from our churches throughout American culture.
- That our national leaders would be endowed with godly wisdom and a desire to please God.
- That unsaved national leaders would come to know Jesus as Savior.
- That they would surround themselves with godly counsel and God-fearing advisors.
