This Week's Prayer Joys and Requests

Bethany celebrates with Reid Oden Anderson, who was baptized on Sunday, July 11. We ask for blessings for his family--Christian and Megan Anderson, as well as his siblings Eli, Lars, and Finn. His Grandparents are Tom and Kathy Anderson.

We celebrate with Jim Jorgensen, who renews his Bethany membership today! Please keep in your prayers as he continues his faith journey. We are blessed to see his smiling face with us again!

Bridget Phillips requests prayers for her daughter, Kierra Galeazzi, who is had a baby girl via C-section on Thursday (7/15) at St Vincent's. Praying for health/healing. Exciting time, yet challenging with another 1-1/2 yr. old daughter to care for - yikes!

Beth and Gary Haskins request prayers for friends of their daughter (Shaina). They have a four-year old son who has been dealing with a brain tumor for a couple years. He was put on Hospice (7/14).

Prayers for Greg Hohn. He is a friend of our custodian, Tina. He has been in the hospital since Sunday(7/11).

Prayers for Heather and her family. They left Milwaukee to find a safer place to live, so she has moved to Green Bay.

The Power of Prayer

Pastor Oswald Chambers wrote, "Prayer is not a matter of changing things externally, but one of working miracles in a person's inner nature." While we pray for others, we plead with God to intercede in their lives, perhaps to bring healing or strength in difficult times. But we are also opening our hearts for change. When we pray for others, we connect to the One who has the power to transform the hearts of others and bring change to their circumstances. At the same time, it amends our hearts.

"I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened in order that you may know the hope to which he has called you, the riches of his glorious inheritance in his holy people, and his incomparably great power for us who believe." (Ephesians 1:18-23)

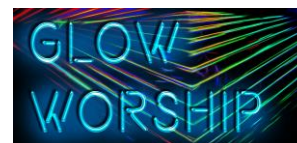

Prayer is powerful for those who are in prayer, and for those who are receiving prayers. If you, or someone you know would like to receive prayer requests from Bethany so you can add them to your prayer life, you can contact the church office to have them mailed to you. If you want them emailed to you, please contact Beth Haskins at gbpls60@yahoo.com.
