

Welcome to the Lord's House! We rejoice in the Lord with you this day. We pray the worship is a blessing as you hear God's Word and His promises of love in our Savior, Jesus.

We know God has a plan for every person. It is part of His plan for you to be here today to hear and experience His great love for you! We give thanks to God that you are here with us at Trinity!

The Lord has blessed Trinity with a growing church family. If you do not have a church family home or a relationship with the Lord, we welcome you here. If you have any needs or questions please ask our greeters or elders and we will be glad to help you.

As God continues to show His grace through the unconditional love of Jesus, we know there is eternal hope. This hope comes from His promises to hold us in His arms in the highs and lows of life until he comes again to bring us to a new heaven and earth. We pray that God's Holy Spirit blesses you in a way that you know He will never let go of you!

Our Mission Statement is simple, "To gather people to build relationships in Christ." We believe that God desires all of us to grow in friendship with one another and to reach out to everyone sharing our best friend, Jesus. We give thanks to the Lord as we have finished our third year as a Congregation in the LCMS as "Trinity Family of Faith Lutheran Church" sharing the Good News of God's grace for all the world!

The Lord Bless You,

WE WELCOME OUR GUESTS today. The Lord Bless you richly! We ask that you please fill out an attendance card at the registration table in the hallway so that we may serve and get to know you better! Members, please remember to sign a card as well.

A FAMILY ROOM FOR NEEDS of PARENTS with SMALL CHILDREN is available to use in the lower level of the building. Please follow the signs to the FAMILY ROOM or Red Room where it is located. We have changing tables in both men and women's restrooms on the main floor and in the Family Room. Please ask a greeter or usher if you have any special needs.

THE CHILDREN'S MESSAGE AND CHILDREN'S CHURCH (10:30 Service only) After the Gospel Reading, children are invited to come up to the front of the altar for a short children's message. Following this message, children may attend a class downstairs with age appropriate activities ranging from singing, Bible stories, and crafts to short Bible lessons. We have two different age groups to better accommodate the needs of our children: 2 - 5 year olds; K - 2nd graders. Children are ushered downstairs to the classrooms and back upstairs to join their families when the sermon is done. You may accompany your child if you wish. We hope you will also prayerfully consider volunteering to help out with this valuable ministry.

CHILDRENS BUSY BAGS are available for younger children as you are entering the worship center.

THE LORD'S SUPPER is the precious gift of Christ Himself. We celebrate it the second and fourth Sundays of each month in our 8am service and the first and third Sundays of each month in our 10:30am service. Jesus says to celebrate this supper, "Do this in remembrance of me." He also took bread and wine and said, "This is my body..., this is my blood for you....". Jesus gave up his life on the cross to forgive our sins. In this supper, Jesus is God's gift to us. He is the lamb of God who is this very meal. Christ joins us in this meal, unites us with himself. We proclaim his death and resurrection until he comes again. Therefore, we are saved by grace through faith in Christ's vicarious offering of Himself for us. (Ephesians 2:8-10). The Lord asks us to be united in faith and belief as we commune as one body. We welcome all who believe our confession to receive the Lord's Supper. God bless your communion. (Further meditation 1 Corinthians 11:17-34) [If you have any concerns or questions about the Lord's Supper and the Christian faith, please wait to commune until learning more about the Christian teachings and blessings of the Lord's Supper.]

Introit/Psalm

Ps. 95:1-9 (antiphon: Ps 95:1)

Oh come, let us sing to the Lord;

let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation!

Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving;

let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise!

For the Lord is a great God,

and a great King above all gods.

In his hand are the depths of the earth;

the heights of the mountains are his also.

The sea is his, for he made it,

and his hands formed the dry land.

Oh come, let us worship and bow down;

let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker!

For he is our God,

and we are the people of his pasture,

and the sheep of his hand.

Today, if you hear his voice,

do not harden your hearts, as at Meribah,

as on the day at Massah in the wilderness,

when your fathers put me to the test and put me to the proof, though they had seen my work.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.
Oh come, let us sing to the Lord;
let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation!

Pastor: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you. (sung)

Pastor: Let us pray...

Almighty God, because you know that we of ourselves have no strength, keep us both outwardly and inwardly that we may be defended from all adversities that may happen to the body and from all evil thoughts that may assault and hurt the soul; through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Discipleship Prayer

Lord Jesus, I want to follow you and be your apprentice. Show me how to spend more time with You, how to become more like You, and how to do what you desire in bringing Your message of grace to the world. Amen

The Scripture Lessons & Verse

The First Reading: Exodus 17:1-7

All the congregation of the people of Israel moved on from the wilderness of Sin by stages, according to the commandment of the Lord, and camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink. Therefore the people quarreled with Moses and said, “Give us water to drink.” And Moses said to them, “Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the Lord?” But the people thirsted there for water, and the people grumbled against Moses and said, “Why did you bring us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our livestock with thirst?” So Moses cried to the Lord, “What shall I do with this people? They are almost ready to stone me.” And the Lord said to Moses, “Pass on before the people, taking with you some of the elders of Israel, and take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go. Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock at Horeb, and you shall strike the rock, and water shall come out of it, and the people will drink.” And Moses did so, in the sight of the elders of Israel. And he called the name of the place Massah and Meribah, because of the quarreling of the people of Israel, and because they tested the Lord by saying, “Is the Lord among us or not?”

Lector: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God!

The Epistle Reading: Romans 5:1-8

Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. Not only that, but we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die— but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Lector: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God!

Lector: Please stand in honor of the Holy Gospel of the Lord.

The Gospel Reading:

Pastor: The Holy Gospel according to St. John the 4th chapter.

Singing of the Gloria

LW #165

Pastor: The Holy Gospel is from John 4:5-26.

So he came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the field that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there; so Jesus, wearied as he was from his journey, was sitting beside the well. It was about the sixth hour.

A woman from Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." (For his disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.) The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a woman of Samaria?" (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.) Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water." The woman said to him, "Sir, you have nothing to draw water with, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water? Are you greater than our father Jacob? He gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did his sons and his livestock." Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never be thirsty again. The water that I will give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life." The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I will not be thirsty or have to come here to draw water."

Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here." The woman answered him, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You are right in saying, 'I have no husband'; for you have had five husbands, and the one you now have is not your husband. What you have said is true." The woman said to him, "Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet. Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, but you say that in Jerusalem is the place where people ought to worship." Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when neither on this mountain nor in Je-
