PRAY with us:

- That our church would truly become a “house of prayer for the nations”
- That God would use us to make new disciples for Christ who, in turn, will be used to make more disciples
- That we could worship and serve Christ together in the full unity of the Holy Spirit
- That our marriages and families positively picture Christ and His bride to our community each day
- That we would be known far and wide for our Christ-like love for one another
- That unbelievers in our midst would come to know that the presence, love and power of Christ is real!

ELDERS' CORNER

THE ETERNALNESS OF GOD

The promises of God are guaranteed by His own eternal name. When Moses doubts God's promise to bring Israel out of Egypt, God guarantees His word by saying, “I will be with you” (Exod. 3:12a). He then signs that promissory note with His name, “I AM WHO I AM” (Exod. 3:14).

He is an eternal God—not an “I WAS” of the past nor an “I WILL BE” of the future but the great “I AM”—always present in our every area of need. No wonder “I AM” becomes the personal name of God in the Old Testament, the LORD.

Obstacles to God's promises are opportunities to draw on His guarantees and learn new facets of His name. When Israel faced bitter water and cried out to the Lord, He sweetened the water and revealed Himself as “. . . the Lord, who heals you” (Exod. 15:26b). When they are overwhelmed in battle and lifted up in prayer, they overcome and realize, “The Lord is my Banner” (Exod. 17:15). When the Israelites sin with the golden calf and plead for mercy, they are forgiven and discover, “The Lord, the Lord, the compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness” (Exod. 34:6). Every challenge they faced became a fresh encounter with new facets of the Lord's name.

Therefore we do not fear our challenges. Instead we cry out to the Lord, the eternal God, who is big enough for our problems. Because God is eternal, the riches of His resources never run dry for our troubles. We do not only look forward to seeing His deliverance but also to learning more fully new facets of His name.

What new facets of the Lord's name will He reveal through your challenges today?
