

GREAT LIFE CHURCH

Consent to Counseling Form

Our Goal: Our goal in providing Christian counseling is to help you meet the challenges of life in a way that will please and honor the Lord and enable you to fully enjoy His love for you and His plans for your life.

Biblical Basis: We believe that the Bible provides thorough guidance and instruction for faith and life. Therefore, our counseling is based on scriptural principles rather than those of secular psychology or psychiatry. Neither the pastoral nor the lay counselors of this church are trained or licensed as psychotherapists or mental health professionals, nor should they be expected to follow the methods of such specialists.

Not Professional Advice: We do not offer the professional advice and services that they do in the secular world. Therefore, if you have significant legal, financial, medical, or other technical questions, you should seek advice from an independent professional. Our pastoral and lay counselors will be happy to cooperate with such advisors and help you to consider their counsel in the light of relevant scriptural principles.

Confidentiality: Confidentiality is an important aspect of the counseling process, and we will carefully guard the information you entrust to us. There are situations, however, when it may be necessary for us to share certain information with others:

1. When a counselor is uncertain how to address a particular problem and needs to seek advice from another pastor or lay counselor in this church.
2. When a counselee attends another church, and it is necessary to talk with his or her pastor or elders.
3. When there is a clear indication that someone may be harmed unless others intervene.

Please also take into consideration that if at any time, you are in physical danger or express the desire to harm yourself or others, we are required to report this to the local authorities immediately and counseling cannot be given.

4. When a person persistently refuses to renounce a particular sin and it becomes necessary to seek the assistance of others in the church to encourage repentance and reconciliation (see Proverbs 15:22; Matthew 18:15-20).

Please be assured that our counselors strongly prefer not to disclose personal information to others, and they will make every effort to help you find ways to resolve a problem as privately as possible.

Resolution of Conflicts: On rare occasions a conflict may develop between a counselor and a counselee. In order to make sure that any such conflicts will be resolved in a biblically faithful manner, we require all of our counselees to agree that any dispute that arises with a counselor or with this church as a result of counseling will be settled by mediation within the church.

Agreement: By signing this consent, you agree that you will not attempt to subpoena or require any counselor to appear in any legal proceeding related to any matters discussed during counseling; nor will you attempt to subpoena any notes or records related to this counseling.

Having clarified the principles and policies of our counseling ministry, we welcome the opportunity to minister to you in the name of Christ and to be used by Him as He helps you to grow in spiritual maturity and prepares you for usefulness in His body. If you have any questions about these guidelines, please talk with a pastor. If these guidelines are acceptable to you, please sign below.
