

LAUREL RIDGE
Community Church

Coming Home Soon...

We are grateful for President Trump's announcement today where he declared that churches are an essential part of life:

- President Donald Trump said Friday, May 22, 2020, he has declared that churches and other houses of worship are 'essential places' and that they provide 'essential services,' and he's told the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention to issue guidance allowing them to reopen.

We are awaiting specific guidelines and more details regarding the requirements for opening our church in a safe manner. In the meantime, we are working on a plan that will allow Laurel Ridge to open for public services soon.

We will not be meeting in our buildings this Sunday, May 24, 2020, but will keep you updated as more information is forthcoming.

Please plan to join us this Sunday for services online at:
