

	Population (Country)	Capital City	Flag
Russia -	145.8 million	Moscow
United Kingdom -	67.7 million	London

Key Vocabulary

- Compass – a tool used to find your way.
- Mountain Range – a series of mountains or hills
- World – the earth together with all its countries and people
- Continent – an expanse of land eg Europe
- United Kingdom – another name for Great Britain
- Country – a region with its own government
- County – an area of United Kingdom
- Ocean – a body of water (Largest is Pacific Ocean)
- Equator – a line that divides the world into North and South

Europe	Asia	Africa	North America	South America	Oceania	Antarctica
United Kingdom	China	South Africa	Canada	Brazil	Australia	South Pole
Germany	India	Egypt	United States of America	Peru	New Zealand
Spain	Japan	Nigeria	Mexico	Chile	Tonga

Key Facts

There are four main points on a compass – North South East West and these are used to find places and to give directions.

There are seven continents in the world. The largest continent is Asia and the smallest is Australia.

Around 70% of the world’s surface is covered by oceans and these are often used to transport food from one continent to another.

