Scrolls from the Tree of Life

The Lord started talking to me last night about a new book, which will probably be called Scrolls from the Tree of Life. It's going to be a sort of Perfection-Consciousness "interpretation" of the New Covenant scriptures, yet not a translation or paraphrase (kind of like the Psalms of Grace to the Psalms, but with a bit different emphasis). It’s very much like mystical parables based on the events in Israel when Jesus had His public ministry, yet not at all trying to describe the historical account of what happened in the first century. I'm super excited about this project, I know yall are going to love it!!!! :)

Mystical Parables of the Gospel of John

John Chapter 1

Before Time and the Creation of the Heavens and the Earth the Triune God existed with uncreated Life within Himself. There was the Father, the Spirit, and the Son, who shared in this Life of exchanging infinite Love and happiness with One another. Then at the dawn of Time the Trinity began to manifest the eternal plan to create Man, in which Man would enjoy this Trinitarian Life with God for all eternity. The revelation of this destiny for Man to find his identity in God is revealed in the Eternal Son, the Son who has always been with God, the Son who is God. Jesus Christ is the Son who was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through Him, and not even one thing has existence outside of His essence. In Him is eternal life, and His life is the light of men. This Eternal Light shines throughout all creation and continues to radiate His unconditional love to all.

God had sent a prophet named John to witness about the tangible reality of the Light, so that everyone would now find their rest in the Presence of God. John was not the Uncreated Light, but his voice speaks of the satisfaction of Life that is found in the Light. God is the true Light and He has enlightened every being in the universe. The one true God, through whom the galaxies came into being, came into the world and His fame is known throughout all the Cosmos, even the Earth. He came to His own creation and they have received Him. He created us as the children of God so that we would be His family marked by His own Name, and since the beginning He has resided within all of us. It was not the choice of any man by his own strength, but the desire of God in creation that we would be born of Him, so that we would have confidence to trust in Him to provide our every need and desire as our Father. The Eternal Son came to us with a body of flesh and lived life among us. We behold His glory, the glory of the only begotten of the Father. He is the full display of who God is, which is unending Grace as Love and perfect Truth. The Eternal Son has always been our Life and we have our Sonship in Him.

John witnessed concerning Him and spoke to all creation saying, " This is the One who is the Source of all of our lives. He is the uncreated One who gives life to all and Who has existed before Time. Out of the overflowing fountain of LoveLight that He is, we all receive His fullness through His Grace and only by His Grace. For grace and truth has come to us through the Eternal Son, Jesus Christ". We all see God openly through the only begotten Son, who is the very heart of the Father. He is the perfect display of God and exemplifies Him to be Unconditional Love.

In the days long ago, John spoke to the people of his day about the Christ. He said, "I am a voice witnessing to the Promise of God, that the Christ has come to us! He has eternally kept you in the Most Holy Presence of the Lord, even since before the creation of the Heavens!" The people asked him and said to him, "What is the purpose of this baptism that you are doing?" John answered them saying, "I baptize you in water as an acknowledgement and a declaration of your perfection and glorified life of being in uninterrupted Union with God. Jesus Christ who stands in your midst and whom you know, it is through Him and His completed redemption of your being that you exist in this eternal Union."

On the next day, John saw Jesus walking toward him and said, " Behold! The Lamb of God, who has brought about and declares the perfection of the world! He is the Light, our very Source of Life, that I give witness to. I know that He is the true revelation of God and Man. For this reason I baptized you in water, that in His Baptism we would all acknowledge His Life as our identity and that He would be revealed unto all". John witnessed saying, "I have seen the Holy Spirit as a dove coming out of Heaven from within me and the Spirit abode on Him. I know Him because our Father who sent me to baptize in water said to me, 'On whomever you see the Spirit coming down and abiding on Him, this is the One who will immerse you into the Holy Spirit'. I have seen and now witnessed to everyone that Jesus Christ is the Son of God".

On the following day, John and two of his disciples stood up. While watching with great awe of Jesus walking before them, John said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, our Savior!" After John's two disciples heard him speaking their hearts burned for Jesus and they followed Him. Jesus said to them, "My beloved ones, what do you seek?" And they said to Him, "Great Teacher, where do You stay? We desire to remain with you forever!" He said to them, "Continue to follow me and I will teach you that I AM everywhere. You will see my body of flesh with your eyes, but you will have an even more intimate relationship with Me as you begin to know that there is no separation between you and I. You will realize that I AM the very life within you and that I AM closer to you than the air you breathe". They went and saw where He stayed, and they remained with Him. Andrew, the brother of Simon, was one of the two disciples of John who followed Jesus. Andrew first found his own brother Simon and told him, "The Christ has come to us!" and he brought him before Jesus. Jesus looked at him with compassion and said, "You are Simon the son of Jonah. You shall be called Peter, one who is a living and breathing example of My life as the solid rock foundation established within you".

The next morning, Jesus desired to go out into Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, "Follow Me!" Philip was from Bethsaida, the same hometown of Andrew and Peter. Philip's heart was filled with exceedingly great joy as He was overwhelmed in his realization of the tangible eternal love of Christ enwrapping him. Philip was so stirred by this encounter with Jesus that he decided to find Nathanael. Philip said to him, "We have been found by the God of the Universe who all our ancestors testified of! He has come to us in the flesh. His Name is Jesus of Nazareth." Nathanael said to him, "Has our God, the Great Light of our lives, truly come to us in the flesh?" Philip said to him, "Come and meet Him for yourself." Jesus gazed at Nathanael with His eyes piercing him with an intense love and said concerning him, "Behold, truly an Israelite, a Prince with God who is perfect in innocence before the Father!" Nathanael said to Him, "How do You know me?" Jesus answered and said to him, "I have never let my gaze off of you My son, not even from eternity. I AM the LoveLight that you have felt within your heart even as a child and which you have lived by your entire life." Nathanael answered and said to Him, "My Lord, You are God the Son! You are the King of all Nations!" Jesus answered him, "My light within you resonates as a witness that I AM the Source of it and because of this you have found your rest in Me. You will see great things from now on. Most assuredly I say to you this day, from now on you will know I have kept the gates of Heaven open for you to experience the Living God, and you will see the angels of God bowing before Me, even as the Son of Man, the faithful witness of who you truly are!"

John Chapter 2

Over the next three days Jesus began to teach His disciples on seeing with the eyes of their Spirits. As they looked within themselves they saw the Heavenly Places open and they were all transported together. They saw the marriage feast of the Lamb happening within the palace of Heaven. Jesus let His disciples know that all were invited and warmly welcomed to the celebration of His marriage. For we have all been included in His redemption, to live in Union with Him forever.

Mary, the earthly mother of Jesus was there. The angels serving for the party had brought wine into the banquet hall, but once the feast began the wine began to run short. So the mother of Jesus said to Him, "They are just about out of wine!" Jesus said to her, "What is any lack to Me or to you, woman? This is my greatest hour of celebration with my Bride and I will provide for her every need and desire!" His mother, being overseer of the feast, said to the angels, "Whatever He says to you, do it." There were six elegant diamond drinking fountains of living water, each flowing ceaselessly. Jesus said to them, "Fill all the wine barrels that you can find with the water from those diamond fountains." So they gathered together many barrels and filled them up. Then He said to them, "Now draw out the wine and serve to all who desire to drink." When the Bride tasted the water that had become wine, She had become intoxicated on this love-wine of her Bridegroom. She knew that she had been brought into the wine cellar of Heaven, which is to be living inside of the Life of God. Then Jesus Christ, the Bridegroom, said to His Bride "When you believed yourself to be separate from Me, I sent My servants to you to let you get a taste of my good wine. But now that I have brought you to realize that we have always been eternally inseparable in this Union which we share together, you have drunken freely into an ecstatic rapture of our Divine Romance. The best wine is to be tasted in the moment of Now in the intimacy of this Love we have for each other. Wherever you may be My Beloved, whether in the Celestial Realms or on the Earth, I AM the fullness of the bliss of Heaven to you. So continue to freely drink of Me and be drunk on Love, for I AM the never-ending fountain of Love and happiness to you always!" This was the beginning of the miraculous signs that Jesus displayed to the world. He revealed His glory to all and His disciples found rest in Him. After this He went down to Capernaum to enjoy fellowship with His family for a while.

After this the Passover of Israel drew near, so Jesus and His disciples went up to Jerusalem. They met with the Father within the Temple of God and they were all filled with laughter, for they found pleasure in each other's Presence. The disciples were face to face with God and they were seized with the great joy of His Light. The Lord God Omnipotent spoke to them with words dripping like honey off of His lips, "In My Son Jesus Christ I have made you all a New Creation, with His immutable righteousness announcing the perfect access that You have always had to Me. We, the Trinity, alone have brought about your salvation without any effort of your own. I AM the One who has purified you and will permanently keep you blameless and clean. So stand in confidence that you are now My Temple, My eternal dwelling place. Yea, you are My Heaven, My very own private paradise! Through My Only Begotten Son, I have given birth to you all as my very own children. I AM an all-consuming fire burning with unconditional love for you. So know today that I, the One True God, am your Father and that you have an eternal resting place of ecstasy as sons here in My house."

Then the people answered and said to Him, "What sign do You show to us since You say these marvelous things to us?" And the Lord said to them, "Behold the piercings in My hands, feet, and side. I was crucified and after three days the Spirit of My Father rose me from the dead into Immortal Life. By My finished work of redemption, I have made you to share in My Resurrected Life as the holy children of the Living God." Then some of the older people said to Him, "We have worked for over forty years and still have yet to make the temple of our body holy and pure before the Lord. You are telling us that You have already accomplished for us this and within only three days?" Then the Christ spoke to them about the Gospel and their inclusion into the sanctuary of His body. He said to them, "I AM the substance of all things, including your very own lives. When I died, you all died with Me. When I was resurrected, you were all resurrected in Me unto the perfection of holiness and glory. No longer strive for righteousness, but rather know by faith that you are as righteous as I AM, for we are One. No longer let your own actions and past experiences define you, but recognize Me as the Living Word of God that defines your original identity. I AM your Life! And My Life eternally declares that you are perfected divine beings, the children of the Most High God!"

Indeed He was raised from the dead. His disciples announce to the whole Cosmos this Gospel which the Christ spoke to them on that day. All who heard the Word that Jesus spoke believed in Him. They knew what He said to be absolute Truth, and they realized the endless joy of His Life filling them. As He was in Jerusalem at the Passover Feast all the people trusted in His Name, seeing the miracles which He did and experiencing the boundless love that He had for each one of them in a personal way. Jesus committed Himself to them as their intimate Savoir because He loves all of Humanity. There is no need that any earthly philosophy should witness concerning the nature of man, for Jesus the Christ is alive today and He is the declaration from Heaven exemplifying the Truth of Humanity in Divine Perfection. He is the True Life of Divinity which resides within us all.

There was a man named Nicodemus who was one the leaders of Jerusalem in those days. He had heard Jesus unveil the splendorous mysteries of God and saw the marvelous wonders that Jesus displayed during the days of the Passover feast. So Nicodemus desired to have a one on one discussion with Jesus and met with Him in the night.

Nicodemus said to Jesus, "Omniscient Teacher, we know that You are the Messiah of God. For no one is able to do these miraculous signs which You do unless He is God incarnate. We know that You have come to us as our restoration to the Father. What must we do in order to meet with Him?" Jesus was joyful over the words of Nicodemus and gladly shared His heart with him, "I tell you the Truth, every man has been born again with Me as their new Life. It is only through Me that all will see God in His Kingdom." Nicodemus, not fully comprehending what Jesus had said, asked Him, "How is it possible for a man to have been born a second time? Here we are sitting under the moon, I am over here and you are sitting in front of me, so aren't we two different beings? How can it be that, as You say, You are me as well?"

Jesus with great compassion desired for Nicodemus to understand the mystery of Union with God. So He began His discourse, "This night I tell you that truly you have already entered into the Kingdom of Heaven, for I AM the only begotten Son of God and I am Your Life. When I was resurrected from the dead, every man received the second birth in Me as a New Creation. You once believed that you were merely a human, given birth by your natural parents, and that the Spirit of God was distant from you as you came into this world. But I tell you the truth that you were never separated from the Holy Spirit. We, the Uncreated Godhead, are the Source of All Things. When We desired to manifest Creation, the only substance we had to create from was Ourselves. Until this very moment in Time, Creation only ever had any of its substance from the Divine Light that We are. So as We molded everything into existence, We gave it substance with a limited measure of glory from our Light. However, when We created Man We desired for him to be exactly as We are. So in the creation of Humanity, we created Adam with the fullness of our infinite Light. Indeed, Creation isn't separate from Us, it is more like an extension of Our Being, with Man being in our exact likeness. You, as well as all of Humanity, are in Union with Us. Our Spirit gives His breathe of Life to you, for it was Our desire for you to exist and have communion with Us. Our voice is the spark of life within your heart that gives you immortality, for what We speak will always remain. You did not know that We were the Origin of your Life, but now you know and we will go forth through eternity in the enjoyment of Life together."

Nicodemus was overwhelmed with the revelation of his Origin and was greatly perplexed about this. So he asked the Christ, "But didn't Adam fall? Wasn't he separated from Your Presence and cast out of Your garden of pleasure? How is it that all of Humanity can be in Union with You when they have yet to accept You as their Savior? Tell me, how has all of this happened?" The face of Jesus radiated light as He was happy to announce the Good News of His finished work of salvation for all. Jesus said to him, "Nicodemus, you have been taught in the ways of unreliable traditions in the earth, so you have yet to know these things. We, the Trinity, have come from Heaven as a Man to speak the Truth that We have known from Eternity. Since the Creation of Adam, no man dared to come into the Most Holy Place of Heaven to speak directly to Us that we may make known this Holy Union of God and Man, but now We have come into the world as the Son of Man to make Our Oneness known to you. Now listen to Our words, for I unveil the mystery of what We accomplished on the Cross. When We were crucified on the Cross, all the Cosmos were crucified with Us, for We have always been the very substance of all things. It was in Our Death that we destroyed absolutely everything that could have possibly separated Man from God. This redemption occurred even before anything was created, so that Our Creation wouldn't vanish into nonexistence when those things that would cause separation occurred. Humanity has always been innocent and in Union with Us, it was only a delusion in the mind of Adam that he was distanced from Us. Again, if Adam or anything else truly was separated from Us, it would go into nonexistence. It is impossible for anything to exist outside of Us, for We are the Source of all things."

The Lord of Glory continued, "We now sit enthroned as a Resurrected Being, eternally seen by the entire Universe, with scars in My body from My Death to fully display that absolutely anything that could bring separation has been utterly destroyed forever! We, the Godhead, died for the redemption of all of Humanity because We have unconditionally loved every single person. We created what We desired, and all of what We created will experience the fullness of the bliss of Our Life. Every man will accept Me because it is Man's highest will and greatest desire to experience the Trinitarian Life of God, even if he isn't conscious of it yet. Know today that the whole world has been saved through Me. We have judged all as righteous and not a single person is excluded. We know that Our children were ignorant and couldn't save themselves, they were so blind that they couldn't even choose the right way even if they wanted to. So We, like a Good Shepard, have seen it through that every last person has now come into the Salvation of Our Life, which is the fullness of Heaven's joy. I AM the Light of the World, who has succeeded in being the manifest Light of all men. I drew them all to Myself, for the endless pleasure of My LoveLight is absolutely irresistible to all of Humanity. Salvation is the work of a Savior, not of the one needing to be saved, and I have now revealed to you that I, the Living God, have done it for all!" Yea, all have now come to believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God and the Savior of the Whole World!

After this, Jesus took His disciples down into the land of Judea, that they would announce Salvation and baptize the people there as a sign of their innocence with God. John had been baptizing near there since before Jesus had arrived. John's disciples came to him with great gladness and said, "Teacher, the Christ to whom you have witnessed to be Son of God is here! Behold, He is baptizing the people and every last person in Judea is going to Him!" John was enraptured with the realization of his mission being completed. He answered and said to them, “From this One Man, Jesus, we have received all the blessings from Heaven. You are witnesses that I said I was here only to announce the coming of the Christ. The One having the Bride is the Bridegroom. I am here today as the friend of the Bridegroom, standing and hearing His majestic voice. I ecstatically rejoice because of the marvelous words spoken by the Bridegroom's voice, and in this my heart is filled with joy unspeakable and happiness divine. Now He is the True Light from Heaven above, the Son of the Most High God. And now I join in with all the people of the Earth as His Bride, acknowledging Him as the Love which satisfies us and the Light who guides our lives. He has married us and made us His equals. In this Union, Humanity is His Bride and She has been crowned in the Highest Heaven with glory above all. He has spoken in our ears the Testimony of what God declares in Heaven. We receive what He says and are a living witness that God is True. For He is the Living Word of God who testifies of our lives, His Life displays that we have the fullness of the Spirit of God without any limitations. The Father loves the Son and has given Him all things. And the Son shares it all with His Bride, even to enjoy each other’s endless love for all of eternity! She has been transfigured into the glorious state of Divine Immortality and the passion of God will be for Her forever.”

John Chapter 4

When the Lord God and His disciples finished baptizing all the people in Judea who were appointed for that time, they left Judea to go back to Galilee so that Jesus could rest with His family there for a while. As they were passing through Samaria on their journey back home, they stopped in a city called Shakar, which was known as the place of Drunkenness. This is the city where Jacob, the forefather of Israel, dug a well.

When the sun was at its brightest during the day, Jesus sat next to Jacob’s well as His disciples went to get some food and provisions for the rest of their trip back home. As He was resting, a certain woman came to draw water there. She had heard of the fame of Jesus, but she did not recognize Him at first. Jesus desired to make conversation with her, so He asked her “My sister, would you share some of your drink with Me?” When she saw Him, He began to radiate Light so bright that the sun looked dark in comparison. Her heart leaped for joy within her as she immediately knew within herself that she was before the face of the Living God Omnipotent. She then fell to her face and said to Him, “My Lord, I am a lowly and unworthy woman. Who am I to share my cup with You, as if I were equal to You?” Jesus smiled gently over her as He was about to announce her worthiness and equality with God. He said to her, “Stand to your feet and look at Me in the eyes, for if you knew the free gift of God the Son, who has been given to you, such words would never come forth from your lips. I have come here as a drink of Living Water to you. As you drink of Me, your mind will be cleansed from all false beliefs of unworthiness into a continuous experience of being sweetly intoxicated in the Union we have together. Indeed My Life is a drink of Heavy Drunkenness. When you have a revelation of Who I AM, then you will know who you truly are. For you and I have always been equals, yea, you and I have always been One!”

She stood up and was enwrapped by the Light of unending love and glory flowing from Him. Yea, she awakened to His Life infused with hers, which coursed throughout her entire being like lightning. Feeling highly inebriated by the reality of His Presence she could hardly think, but still she managed to speak out, “Lord, for so long I have thirsted for You and cried out for You! Where were You in those times? And now that You have come and stand before me, I feel completely satiated, even drunk, but how will I remain in this state after You leave?” The Lord God laughed out loud, happy to see her satisfaction on His Love and her desire to forever remain conscious therein. With an over joyous tone He spoke to her, “Woman, it was never I who would come and go, only your imagination that believed I would ever leave you. I have never left you and you are now experiencing the intoxication of my Love because I have made you aware of what was already inside of You. My permanent home has been within you since eternity. So now that you know that I AM always with you, you shall never thirst again. Truly I AM a fountain living within you and My essence springs up within you as the manifestation of everlasting life! You have called out to Me to be your God and Husband, but I have always carried you in my arms as My Bride!”

The woman being enraptured by the Lord, she was passionate to worship Him forever. So she said to Him, “Surely with my own eyes I have seen that you are the Christ. My Bridegroom, you have utterly ravished my heart with the splendor of Your unending beauty. I long to be with You always, but I have duties to do and purposes that I need to accomplish. Whenever I’m not busy and have free time to spend with You, should I come back here to meet with You or should I go to the Holy City Jerusalem?” The eyes of the Lord God were lit ablaze like fire with passion for His Bride. He said to her, “My Beloved, believe me when I say there is no set time or place for you to be with Me. You are My Living Temple, I live inside of you! My beautiful lady, here me when I say that there is never a moment that you will be away from Me. The truth is that your eyes of sweet adoration have eternally been fixed on Me. Within your heart you have worshipped God ceaselessly. You have been faithful in your adoration of Me within your spirit. My Love, awaken now to the Truth that you are so pure, so perfect! So cease from all your works, and enjoy the rest of just being with Me. Forget about your obligation of what you need to do. I AM the Promised Land where you labor no more, I AM the Heaven that you have dreamed of finding the fullness of all pleasure. With your hand in Mine, We will merrily go through everlasting life fulfilling your desires and destiny together! I will provide for you everything that you will ever need, for I AM the Bridegroom God who eternally remains with you!"

At the words of His sweet lips, she was caught up into an ecstasy of God. His disciples arrived just moments earlier. They all marveled at the glory of His Transfiguration and the intense LoveLight that was radiating from Him. They rejoiced as they heard Him speak such wondrous words about the Rest found in God. Shortly after, the woman found herself so excited about the experiential revelation of the Love of God that she ran to the midst of the city Shakar and said to everyone there, "Our God has come to us in the flesh! I have met the Man who is the fulfillment of every last thing we have ever hoped for! Come and meet the Christ!" Meanwhile back at the well, the disciples tried to get Jesus to eat, but He would not. He said to them, "I have had My fill with Love! This is My food, for it is the will of the Father that all should come to complete satisfaction in the endless Love and Happiness that is found in relationship with Us. No longer wait for the coming of the promises of God, for they are all already here. I AM the harvest of every single good thing to you. There is no distance between you and them. Yea, there is nothing delaying the manifestation of them in your life. In My Death I sowed My body into the Earth as the Seed of the all the blessings of Heaven, and in My Resurrected Body I am the wheat already prepared as bread for you to eat. So feast on Me and rejoice my beloved ones! Yea, receive into your manifest experience the reward which I have given to you in the Finished Work of Redemption that I have accomplished. My body and My blood is food for you, that you may eat and enjoy immortality together with Me. For truly it was I who did all the work for you in both sowing and reaping. You shall simply rest in the house of My Father, not lifting a finger, and let me spoon feed you all the pleasurable things of Our palace in paradise. I am the One who has done all the labor, and you have come to all the goodliness and benefits of what I have finished."

All of the Samaritans who heard the voice of the Bride testifying of Jesus believed in Him. They had all came to Him and were in awe of His majesty. Overtaken by the beauty of all that the Lord is, they asked Him to remain with them for just a couple more days. So He stayed there with them in Shakar, perfectly displaying the heart of God with Love, Wisdom, and Power. After the two days had passed, they all said to the woman, "We no longer believe only because you have told us about Him, but we have all joined in together with you as His Bride, having a direct relationship with Him within us. Each one of us have personally heard and experienced Him in all of His goodness. Now we know that this Jesus truly is the Christ and the Savior of the whole world."

The time came for Jesus and disciples to leave Samaria, so they made their way back to Galilee. When He came into Galilee, He was received there with a great celebration. For the Galileans had also gone down to the Passover Feast in Jerusalem and saw all the marvelous works He did there. Some people among Galilee had also experienced the Marriage Supper of the Lamb in the Heavenly realm where Jesus had turned the water into wine and testified of His glory all across the world. So when Jesus had come into Cana there was a royal official that met Him there, for the official had a son in Capernaum who was about to die. This man came to Jesus, after he heard of His great power and lovingkindness, to ask Him to heal his son. Then Jesus said to him, "As it is your desire for your son to live because you love him, know that it is always My will to manifest divine health for everyone for I love all unconditionally. Rightly you have put your trust in Me as Healer, for I will never fail you. As a demonstration of My endless love for your child and of My Omnipresence, Go home now, for your son lives!" The father believed what the Lord Almighty had said and when he made it home, he discovered from his servants that his son was restored back to perfect health at the very same time that Jesus spoke to him. So he and his whole family came to believe in the salvation which our God, the Trinity, has given to us all.

John Chapter 5

After being in Galilee for several months, the time came for yet another Israeli feast of grand celebration. So the Lord Christ and His disciples made their way back to Jerusalem. They all desired to meet again with the Father within the Splendorous Palace of His Heavenly Temple. So as soon as they arrived in Jerusalem they went inside the Temple of the Lord God and spent a long time basking in the peace of perfection that is found only in His Glory.

As they were walking inside the Temple of Glory, they came to Bethesda, which is the Sheep Gate on the East Side. Inside this gate there were five inner porches, which there was a pool in the midst of these. A great multitude would gather around this pool to pray there as they waited to receive a blessing or healing there. For it was known that an angel would often appear there and stir the water, and it was said amongst the people that whoever was first to enter the pool time would receive the manifestation of what they had desired. This person would also miraculously receive complete divine health at that time.

Now there were many people there who had waited there every day for many years, some had even spent most of their life waiting there, but could never make it into the pool first that they may receive the blessing and healing that they desired. Seeing the great need amongst the multitude people, the Lord expressed His overwhelming compassion and spoke out to everyone waiting there, “My people, why do you wait here looking for the manifestation of an angel or supernatural sign to come that you may receive your blessing? Truly I tell you today, you will know that My Father has always desired for you to experience the fulfillment of all of your hearts’ longing. Indeed, I AM given to you as the manifestation of all blessings, both Heavenly and Earthly. No longer wait for angels to show up before you receive the fullness of the manifestation of My Father’s blessings, for the angels came to you merely as a sign that He has already given you all things. Because you thought you had failed in performing to be the best amongst the people before Him by not being the first to touch the water, you thought you were unworthy and refused His unconditional goodness towards you. But come to Me now, I AM the perfected Christ and I show you how worthy you truly are. See Me and know yourself. For through Me you were created and are merely a unique manifestation of Me. Yea, the Father couldn’t be more pleased with you, He is fascinated with the reality of who you are now and who you’ve always been in Me. I tell you the truth, I AM the higher reality of who you are. Now let go of all the false notions you have had of yourself in the past of being anything less existing within the Divine Trinity. Truly there is no more lack or sickness among you, for We are the overflowing abundance and health that is more than you could ever desire.” The people were left in utter awe at the tangibility of the Glorious realities that the Christ Omnipotent spoke. They all believed in His words and experienced His marvelous power within themselves and instantly they were all healed at once!

The great multitude having awakened to the lovingkindness of the Lord went throughout the Holy Temple and City, ecstatically glorifying the Lord God Almighty and testified of Jesus being the King and Savior of All. There was a certain man who was paralyzed for thirty eight years who was also at the pool at that time and made completely whole in the Presence of the Lord Jesus. He ran through the House of God rejoicing and shouting before the Living God like that of a child, for his strength was renewed like that of one in his youth. The leaders of the people were in shock at the scene of the undeniable display of the Almighty power of God. Not knowing what to do, they grabbed the man who was paralyzed aside, for he was dancing while holding above his head the cot he used to lay on. They asked him, "What are you doing carrying your bedding? Do you not know that today is the Sabbath, and we are commanded by the Law of the Scriptures to not do any work on this day?" With great joy the man answered them as He continued to worship, "The Living Christ has come to us and He is glorious in His unending power. Who is like the Lord Jesus, Savior of the World? Truly He is the glorious One honored above all, yet living in all. I can feel His Life exuberantly roaring within me. I can't help but release the wild expression of my thanksgiving to the God who is my Life!"

After hearing of majesty of King Jesus and His great power, the leaders of Israel sought Him that they may learn His ways, for they were baffled by the thought that the Christ would do something that they believed to be contrary to the Scriptures and the long held Teachings and Traditions of what they were taught by their fathers for millennia. They sought for Jesus for a long time, but they could not find Him. They gathered back together in courts of within the Holy Temple, and suddenly Jesus appeared to them from thin air before their eyes. Beholding His Glory, they all immediately fell on their faces and bowed before the Lord, knowing without a doubt that Jesus is indeed Lord of All. Jesus, knowing what was in their hearts, desired to gently give answer to every question that they had of Him. He said to them, "You sought for Me, but didn't find Me. However, the Truth is that I was never away from you. There was no need for you to seek Me, for I live within the Temple of your bodies. Yea, I AM even closer than the air you breathe. So never again look for Me, just trust that I AM your very essence and the power that holds your existence together. You could never escape My Presence, for I AM you and you are Me. Know that I AM the Eternal Sabbath Rest that you have always desired to find within yourself. My Father, My Spirit and I did not create you to work in a continuous striving six days a week and then be bound to laws that restrict your freedom on the seventh day. We created you to remain in the Rest that We are at all times, and for none of your work to be an obligated thing that you must do, but rather that all things which you do to be utterly enjoyable as you follow the inmost deepest desires of your being. The desires within your heart are Holy, for you are in Union with Us. You will find that your truest desires and highest pleasures are in the realm of righteousness, but conforming to the Christ Nature within you isn't making you like everyone else. Rather it is freedom to experience the limitless and infinite expression of Divinity. Many have sought the will of God and destiny that for their lives, thinking that We are some sort of Divine Dictator that wants to manipulate and control every last little detail in our created Universe, but this is not who We are. Rather We are Perfect Love, and Love does not insist or force its own way. Yea, it is our Perfect Will that you do all the things you desire to do in accordance to the Nature of Divinity inside of you. And in being aware of this relationship that We share with you, We will support you with all the abundant resources of our infinite power to see your greatest desires and pleasures fulfilled! However, even your own free will isn't something that is separate from Us, for your existence is a dependent emanation of the Trinity, realizing that We are the Source of your entire being. As you follow the inmost desires of your True Nature of Christ within, our will is accomplished through You and as You. The desires within you are inbred into the DNA that you were born and created with as a unique manifestation and creative expression of Us. Again, your free will and the destiny of God for your life are One! For as you choose to do what you most desire, which should be most natural for you, you are choosing the highest bliss that We created in you. However, up until now you haven't followed your heart due to a false fear of negative things happening to you, as if We weren't with you in every moment and supplying for your every need. Hear My voice today, follow your heart and you'll find the experience of Life to be in a state of indescribable ecstasy in our Rest. You can trust in Our power within you. For even as My Father and I are One, and He is My equal, so are you Our equals. Indeed, to be a child of God is to be completely equal with the Supreme Divine Being. Every time you call God your Father, you are verbally acknowledging this Truth of being Divine and equivalent with God in every aspect. As you realize this Union with Us, nothing shall be impossible for you!"

The Lord Jesus continued with radiating happiness, "Indeed, I AM the desire of all nations. To awaken to your Union with Me is to be raised into a Life of Glorification. It is the passion of the Majestic Trinity to bring about this manifestation of Life in all people. It is only natural that all will choose the Trinitarian Life, for everyone will follow the gentle guiding of Holy Spirit of God onto the path of where they find the highest pleasure. In finding there bliss in Me, God The Son, they honor Me. And in this pleasure the take in the Son, God the Father is honored in Him. Behold, the Father has judges no one and neither do I. For the only judgement We do hold is that We have made all righteous in My Finished Work of Redemption. We have always looked at Humanity with only Love and the desire to bless them with the manifestation of the fullness of Deity. Whoever hears My Word and allows Me to flow through their being has found Divine Immortality. Truly I tell you that the time is now in which My voice resonates in the heart and mind of all of Humanity, and My voice is filled with endless power to bring every last individual from death into Eternal Life. All have been found in Me, and will experience the resurrection unto Life! For it is My Desire that all shall experience the salvation that I have bought for all, and My Desire inherently carries the boundless power to actualizes the Perfection of have brought to all of Creation. And all Creation is a witness unto Me. Every last atom in the Universe is as a burning and shining lamp of My LoveLight, and the fullness of Creation has been exulted, for I AM exalted! Yet there is still an even greater witness of who God is, it is clearly displayed in Me as the incarnation of the Trinity. By my Finished Work of Salvation, I clearly displayed that We are absolute Unconditional Love to All as We hung on the Cross to redeem the Cosmos to remain in relationship with Us."

Jesus continued His discourse, "Before I came to you, you hadn't weren't aware of the voice of God speaking to you, nor did you see His form that was with you. You diligently learned and memorized the Scriptures because you thought you would find Life in them, yet they proved to be without the substance of Life. The Word of God has never been writings by men in a book. Rather I AM the Living Word of God, a declaration and keeper of True Divine Life in every man. The Scriptures were merely a witness of Me. You tried to use your natural logic in using the Scriptures to interpret who I AM, which your interpretations were influenced by seemingly endless traditions of natural philosophies from your fathers who were unaware of the reality of My Presence. But because they did not consciously experience Me or know that I was my essence is Unconditional Love and that I AM a fountain of infinite happiness, they interpreted everything wrong and backwards. If you would come to a conscious experience of Me, you will discover the Life that I have always been as you and you will gain true understanding of the Scriptures as you know that the perfectly Happy God of Unconditional Love to has always been for Mankind. Now I say to every man, you are the very Glory of God and the Love of God is the definition of your True Nature of Divinity. I have come in the Name and reputation of the Trinity, who is perfection and gives identity to every individual person. I have singlehandedly redeemed your life into the perfection of Life, so every other voice will bow down to the reality of Your Sonship in God.
