suggested discussion questions

getting connected with scripture:

- How does it feel to know that ancestors of our faith, like David, experienced seasons where it felt like God had forgotten them?
- Read Mark 15:34. What are some commonalities between what Jesus experienced and what David describes in Psalm 13?
- Read Luke 32:46. How do Jesus' final words compare to the end of this Psalm?
- How can we believe that God is still good and trustworthy when the miracle doesn't come or it feels like we are forsaken and forgotten?

getting real with each other:

- Can you share about an "unanswered prayer" from your past?
 - How did you feel about it in the moment?
 - Looking back now, how do you view or make sense of it now?
- How comfortable are you with getting real with God like many of the Psalms do?
- Is there anything you're currently discouraged by or even struggling to trust God in that we could pray with you about?

getting practical with our faith:

- What are practical ways we can grow to be more authentic & vulnerable with God?
- What are some practical ways we can cultivate trust in seasons of struggle?
- Can you identify ways in which the struggle or even the seeming absence of faith can actually serve to strengthen our spirit and make us like Jesus?
- Reflection Question: Read Psalm 13 again individually, making it your own prayer.
