

Application for FRTMD Advisory Board

The FRTMD Board may designate individuals to serve as Advisors to the Board.

- Advisor can be an individual or a representative of an organization.
- 9 total Advisors: 3 Advisors representing each jurisdiction or micro-zone. (Quincy/Bucks Lake), (Indian Valley/Feather River Canyon), (Lake Almanor Basin)
- Advisors will be removed from their position if they miss three (3) consecutive regular Board meetings, unless they are part of an organization and the organization sends an alternative representative in their place.
- Advisors are not able to vote at the Board meetings, but will be asked for input, and can be considered as members of a committee.
- Advisors serve for a term of one (1) year.

Nomination Process

Any resident or individual representing a business or community organization within the Feather River Tourism Marketing district is eligible to apply, per the guidelines above. If you are interested in being considered for an Advisor position, please provide the information on the following page. The Nomination Committee will review all nominations and make their recommendation to the Board.
