

2 Peter – Small Group Study Week Seven

Verses for the week: 2 Peter 3:8-13

“But do not overlook this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. The Lord is not slow to fulfill his promise as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance. But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a roar, and the heavenly bodies will be burned up and dissolved, and the earth and the works that are done on it will be exposed. Since all these things are thus to be dissolved, what sort of people ought you to be in lives of holiness and godliness, waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be set on fire and dissolved, and the heavenly bodies will melt as they burn! But according to his promise we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells.”

Questions:

1. Of all the prophecy, from these Verses, what may be most important thing to be fulfilled?

What does this tell you about God and His intentions since beginning of time?

2. What is our role as believers in preparing for Second Coming?

Quote of the week: A man trying to understand the nature of God asked him, “God, how long is a million years to you?”

God answered, “A million years is like a minute.”

Then, the man asked, “God, how much is a million dollars to you?”

And God replied, “A million dollars is like a penny.”

Finally, the man asked, “God, could you give me a penny?”

God said, “In a minute.”
