

Photo by Thomas Elliott

Park County Historical Society: www.parkcountyhistory.com

South Park City: <https://www.southparkcity.org/> or www.youtube.com/southparkcitymuseum

The Stage Stop was one of the first buildings moved to South Park City from the top of Mosquito Pass in 1957

John Dyer Church moved in 1981 – one of the first buildings you enter when arriving

South Park City circa 1961

80 ton Stone Building

South Park City 2019

South Park City

Presented by

Erin Pulsipher, Curator
Park County Historical Society
Saturday, July 24th, 2021, 6pm

Started in 1950s by Leon Snyder. He bought the land and started moving buildings there, 22 buildings originally. The 80 ton Rock Building, aka Sheriff's office and Jail, may be the last building moved into South Park City. Total buildings now: 44. Rocky Mountain PBS video <https://youtu.be/Wuv5qKCvzKw> Living History Days Aug 14-15, 2021