Big Game in Colorado
June 29th, 2019

Ian Petkash is the Wildlife Officer for the Southeast side of Park County, assigned to the Lake George district since 2014. Prior to hiring on with CPW, he worked on various wildlife studies ranging from wolverine & brown bear to bighorn sheep & mountain goats. His wildlife work has taken him from the Mummy Range of Colorado to the north Cascades of the Pacific Northwest to Kodiak Island in the Aleutian Chain. Officer Petkash will be speaking about the big game animals of Colorado & will have skulls, hides & other neat wildlife parts on hand for people to check out.
