

SPEAKER | MARC ESTES

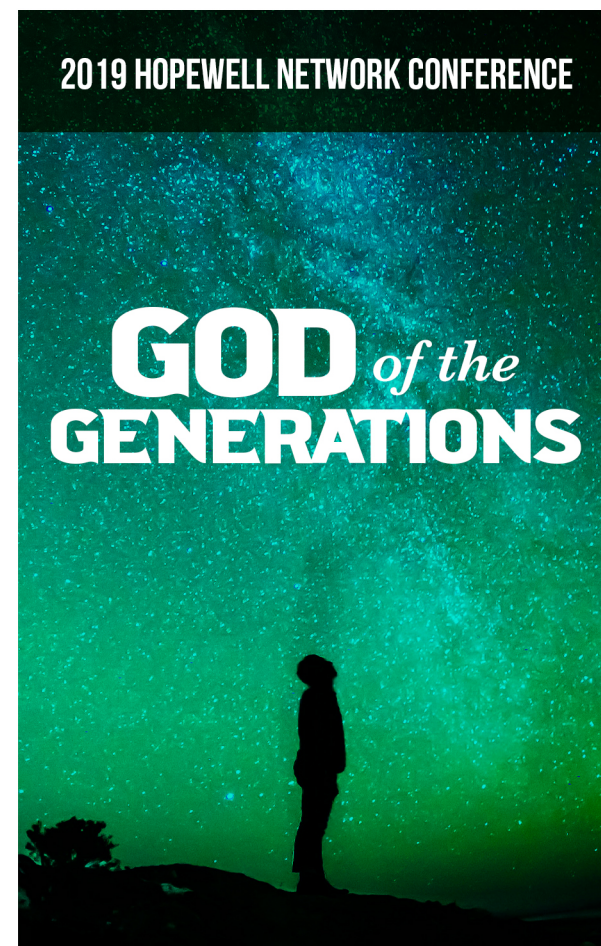

Pastors Marc and Susan Estes are the Lead Pastors and have faithfully served Mannahouse (formerly City Bible Church) and the Portland Metro area for over 20 years and functioned in a variety of roles over the decades. The roots of their hearts run deep for all people and they have given their life to helping people find Jesus and reach their full potential in Christ.

Pastor Marc is a nationally and internationally known creative communicator and author who has reached thousands with his dynamic leadership skills and unique perspectives on the Bible. He is well respected in Portland/Vancouver and has worked relentlessly to build bridges with other churches, public schools, law enforcement, anti-sex trafficking groups, foster care agencies and other groups to transform our community and break down the walls that have divided it. He is also the President of Portland Bible College that focuses on training leaders around the globe.

Pastor Marc and Susan have four grown children, four grandchildren, and reside in Oregon.
