presents a webinar

featuring

DON VU

Life, Literacy and the Pursuit of Happiness

Don's first book, Life, Literacy and the Pursuit of Happiness, is coming out in April from Scholastic. Life, Literacy, and the Pursuit of Happiness is a call to action. It's an inspirational guide for educators who want to make a difference not only in their schools but in their country and world. It's a testament to the transformative power of reading and how literacy can open the door for all to realize the American dream.

During his tenure as principal, the school was recognized by CRA, ILA and the CA Department of Education for excellence and innovation.

Don's webinar will focus on the ways teachers and school leaders can create a culture of reading that will help all kids-especially our immigrants and refugees - thrive and succeed. Through six conditions of culture (Commitment, Clock, Conversation, Collection, Connection and Celebration), educators can make a difference! Highlighting important ideas from his upcoming book, you will come away with strategies to make reading fun, engaging, and life changing for all kids.

Life, Literacy, and the Pursuit of Happiness can be preordered on Amazon now. Check out Don's website at www.drdonvu.com for book talks, read-alouds, and ideas on creating a thriving culture of literacy in your school.
