presents a webinar

Featuring

MARYELLEN VOGT

Developing English Learners' Oral Language and Literacy with the Language Experience Approach (LEA)

Join Dr. MaryEllen Vogt as she discusses the Language Experience Approach (LEA). Used by reading specialists for many years, at no time in the past has it been more relevant. We'll take a brief look at LEA's theoretical underpinnings, research, and history before examining its steps to implementation, with classrooms examples and implications for English learners' language and literacy development. We'll also discuss ways to bring LEA into distance learning contexts.
