- Orientation for the show will be held Wednesday, September 4, beginning at 5:30 p.m. All dogs should be wearing a collar and be controlled on a leash at all times. Orientation should be attended by participant, (if under 18, their adult guardians) and their pets.
- Judging will commence at 6:00 p.m.
- Owners are responsible for picking up after their dogs. Baggies will be provided.
- After judging has been completed all dogs must be vacated from the fairgrounds.
- Awards will be presented in the small, medium, and large dog categories. No prize money will be paid at this show.
- The 4-H Strut Your Mutt Show Committee reserves the right to refuse any entries that are deemed inappropriate.
- Puppies under six months of age on the first day of the show are not eligible for exhibition.
- The 4-H Strut Your Mutt Committee, the Poinsett County 4-H Great Clovers Club, and/or the Poinsett County Fair Board will not be responsible for the loss, detention of, or damage to any dog, person or property whether arising from accident or other causes, or from any act of omission of officers, agents, volunteers or others or damage done by the exhibitor, any person or property. It is with this understanding that only entries are accepted.
- No animal except the dogs entered for the show will be allowed within the precincts of the show during the orientation and/or competition.
- Entry Fees cannot be refunded under any circumstances.
- If, in the opinion of the 4-H Strut Your Mutt Committee or Show Judge, any dog is considered unfit for exhibition due to disease, savage disposition or other cause, the dog may be excluded or removed from the Show. Once excluded or removed from the show the dog must not be brought into the Show and must vacate the Poinsett County Fairgrounds.
- Any outward abuse of the dog on the show grounds will result in disqualification.
- All proceeds will benefit projects of the Poinsett County Great Clovers 4-H Club.
