FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S CHAIR

Arts week has gone extremely well thanks to Chris Allen's organisational skills and the quality of our teachers, parent help, Artists and Musicians. Everyone has gone that extra mile to foster and celebrate creativity. Thanks to the BoT for their budgeting support around this at around $20 per child for the week.

Last week I reminded everyone how reading at home for pleasure is extremely important if you want your children to be successful in literacy. This week I will focus on the importance of knowing the basic facts. One way to help at home is to play card games like Crib or Black Jack or make up games using snap rules for two cards that add to 10 or multiply to make a number between 20-35 etc. Or just ask in the car as a fun quiz. If your children are using devices, insist on 15-20mins on 'Study Ladder' or 'Prodigy' before they can go to their usual site.

If home can support the reading independently, knowing basic facts and recalling multiplications tables then the children will find other learning at school more easy and teachers can use their time efficiently.

PAPAKAIO'S GOT TALENT

The date is set for tomorrow; 27th September at 10.45-12.30pm in the Papakaio Community Hall.

OPEN DAY – FRIDAY 27 SEPTEMBER

Tomorrow you can come and see what we have done for Arts Week at our open school 10-10.45am. At 10.45 we go over to the Papakaio Community Hall for our Papakaio's Got Talent Show. Following the show you are welcome to take your children home or leave them to help clean up for the end of the term. Buses will run as per normal.

Mr Whippy will be making a surprise visit at 12.45pm on Friday delivering a free ice-cream to all of our children as a thank you for being a part of our Papakaio8Hour. Thank you Mr Whippy and Emma Guy for organising this. Let us know if your child is dairy intolerant so we can have an alternative organised.
