

Director of Next Generations – Job Description

Organization:	Generations Church
Compensation:	Hourly, $15/hour
Benefits:	Not benefited
FT/PT:	PT (10-15 hours/week)
Direct Report:	Lead Pastor and Director of Operations
Denomination:	Assembly of God

Vision of GC—

To be a life-giving community serving all ages and races where Jesus is the main attraction.

Values—

Word centered – Spirit driven – People loving

PURPOSE OF ROLE—

To pioneer and plot our church's strategy for ministry to kids in kindergarten through high school. The Director of Next Generations will need to be an energetic, relational team player who can start from scratch and build from the ground up! They will build and oversee a children's ministry (K-5th grade) as well as a youth ministry (6th-12th grade), and they will serve as the youth ministry leader. Part of building these ministries will be making connections with families in the community.

QUALIFICATIONS—

- Bachelor's degree preferred
- Love for people
- Love for the Word of God
- Belief in Spirit baptism
- A heart for evangelism (reaching the un-churched)
- A heart for discipleship (raising up young leaders)

RESPONSIBILITIES—

- Build a children's ministry program; recruit, train, schedule and oversee volunteer leaders
- Build a youth group and volunteer staff
- Interact with students and their families
- Love, teach, and disciple young people in the gospel of Jesus
- Devise creative outreach to our community
- Arrive early to set up for our gatherings

EXPECTATIONS—

- See Staff Expectations document.