

Beacon Bible Camp Acknowledgement of Risk Form:

Camp ministry is a fun and event-filled week of running, jumping, swimming, catching, throwing, chasing, laughing, and resting.

I understand that some of the activities that I may participate in at Beacon Bible Camp can involve some level of risk and understand that due to the nature of these activities all injuries cannot be completely prevented. I understand that participation involves some level of risk, and I am aware that there is a possibility of injury. These injuries may range from a simple bruise to a cut, sprain, or injury that needs medical attention.

I certify that I am physically able to participate in the above mentioned activities and have not been advised otherwise by a qualified person.

I hereby consent to receive medical attention that may be deemed advisable in the event that I get sick or injured while a participant at Beacon Bible Camp.

By signing below, I hereby acknowledge that I am voluntarily participating in the activities of Beacon Bible Camp and that I have read and understood everything written above and voluntarily sign this Acknowledgement of Risk Form,

Camper's Name: _____ age _____

Signature _____

Parent/ Guardian's Name: _____

Signature: _____ date: _____

Emergency Contact information:

(Cell) _____ Main phone: _____

Work Phone: _____ Other: _____