Dodge, Duck, Dip and Dive

Woonsocket, RI: Autumnfest Dodgeball Tournament, “Dodge, Duck, Dip & Dive”, that’s what it’s going to take to win this new Co-Ed Sporting Event at this year’s Autumnfest. The tournament will take place on Saturday October 7th at World War II Veterans Memorial Park in Woonsocket, in the new basketball courts off East School Street. For additional information and adult team registration forms go to the Autumnfest website at www.autumnfest.org.

The Autumnfest Dodgeball Tournament is sponsored by Anchor Subaru/Nissan of North Smithfield and The Valley Breeze Newspaper. It is through the generosity of these two sponsors that Autumnfest is able to return with this enjoyable and exciting sporting event for both young and old.

The Autumnfest Dodgeball event will have two divisions. The Elementary Division (grades 3 thru 5) and the Adult Division (18 and over). The Elementary Division will feature two category champions, as the Adult Division will feature one Championship Team. There is NO FEE for the Elementary Division. Parental consent is required to register and participate in this event.

The Elementary Division (grades 3 thru 5) will hold its player’s registrations on the morning of to the event between 8:30am and ending at 9:15am sharp! At which time, teams will be formed. The two elementary categories will be formed according to player’s sizes and ability. The double elimination competition will start at 9:30am. The two elementary category championship teams will receive championship t-shirts and the opportunity to be in the Autumnfest Parade.

The Adult Division will have a 16 team limit, comprised of 10 players each, no substitutes. Teams will be divided into four groups of which the best of four games within their respective groups will advance to the double elimination of the final four.

The Adult Division will award championship t-shirts and cash for the top 3 finishers. The champions will receive $500, runner-up $250, and third place $100 respectively. All Dodgeball Division Champions have the privileged of being in the Autumnfest Parade.
