

Undocumented Fairy Lamps (Cont'd)

U-57

Lithophane, royal blue edges decorated with gold stripes and dots. The back is molded stacked horizontal bars painted robin's egg blue. Scene from "Listening to Fairies" by Borderhausen, 1883. It is unmarked. 4.75"h x 3.625"w x 2.75" deep. (Discussion: Issue V)

U-58

Frosted clear globe on silver plated pedestal with pegged red candle holder. Unmarked. Clarke's tallow candle. Dimensions unavailable.

U-59

Fairy-size Nailsea dome on Clarke lamp cup. Pedestal is clear glass with circular foot rising to hollow oviform stem supporting three reeded branches and barley twist ring. Diamond registration mark. 9.8"h. (Discussion: Issue VI)

U-60

Wall mounted epergne. This epergne is similar in description to R-686. The only exception is the two curved brass arms that provide a means to mount to a wall. Approximately 15" wide.