

Undocumented Fairy Lamps (Cont'd)

U-165

The "Servant Boy" (unofficial name). The kneeling figure is cast iron with a twisted wire fairy lamp holder. The pyramid-size fairy lamp is a clear diamond point in a Clarke lamp cup. The holder is unmarked. Approximately 6.5"h.

U-166

Jeweled stamped and pierced brass fairy-size dome with eight large 1" faceted jewels set in individual filigree frames. Similar to U-126 but without the smaller jewels. Three-footed brass base with depression for candle and thumb-grip handle. 4"h. x 3 1/2" dia.

U-167

Fairy-size version of R-505 shown with blue Nailsea dome with white loopings. Base marked "Patent" and "Taylor, Tunnicliffe & Co." Fairy-size lamp cup is on short pedestal and intrical flower bowl, decorated with swirl tapestry pattern. Approximately 8.125"dia.

U-168

Rose fairy-size DQMOP dome resting in integral lamp cup marked "S. Clarke's Patent Trade Mark Fairy" in a square Tapestry Ware base. Base is decorated with gold single and double tassels at each corner. Base marked "Doulton Burslem, US Patent 314002". 7.25"w.